

Respite Participant Profile for Eligibility

A physician must state that the individual is capable of participating in the respite program.

The individual must be cooperative, generally positive or a neutral attitude.

The individual must be able to evacuate the building in case of an emergency independently or with minimal assistance from staff.

The individual can ambulate alone or with an assistive device, i.e.: cane, walker or wheelchair.

The individual must be able to feed oneself.

The individual must be dressed appropriately.

The individual must be able to manage his or her own bowel and bladder needs or wear incontinent protection as indicated.